

Source: Sonoma County Permit Resource Management Department

WINDSOR/HEALDSBURG COMMUNITY SEPARATOR
FIGURE 3.1-1

Example existing view from public roadway

Simulated view of reservoir berm two years after construction

Source: IRWP EIR, 2003

Example existing view from public roadway

Simulated view of reservoir dam two years after construction

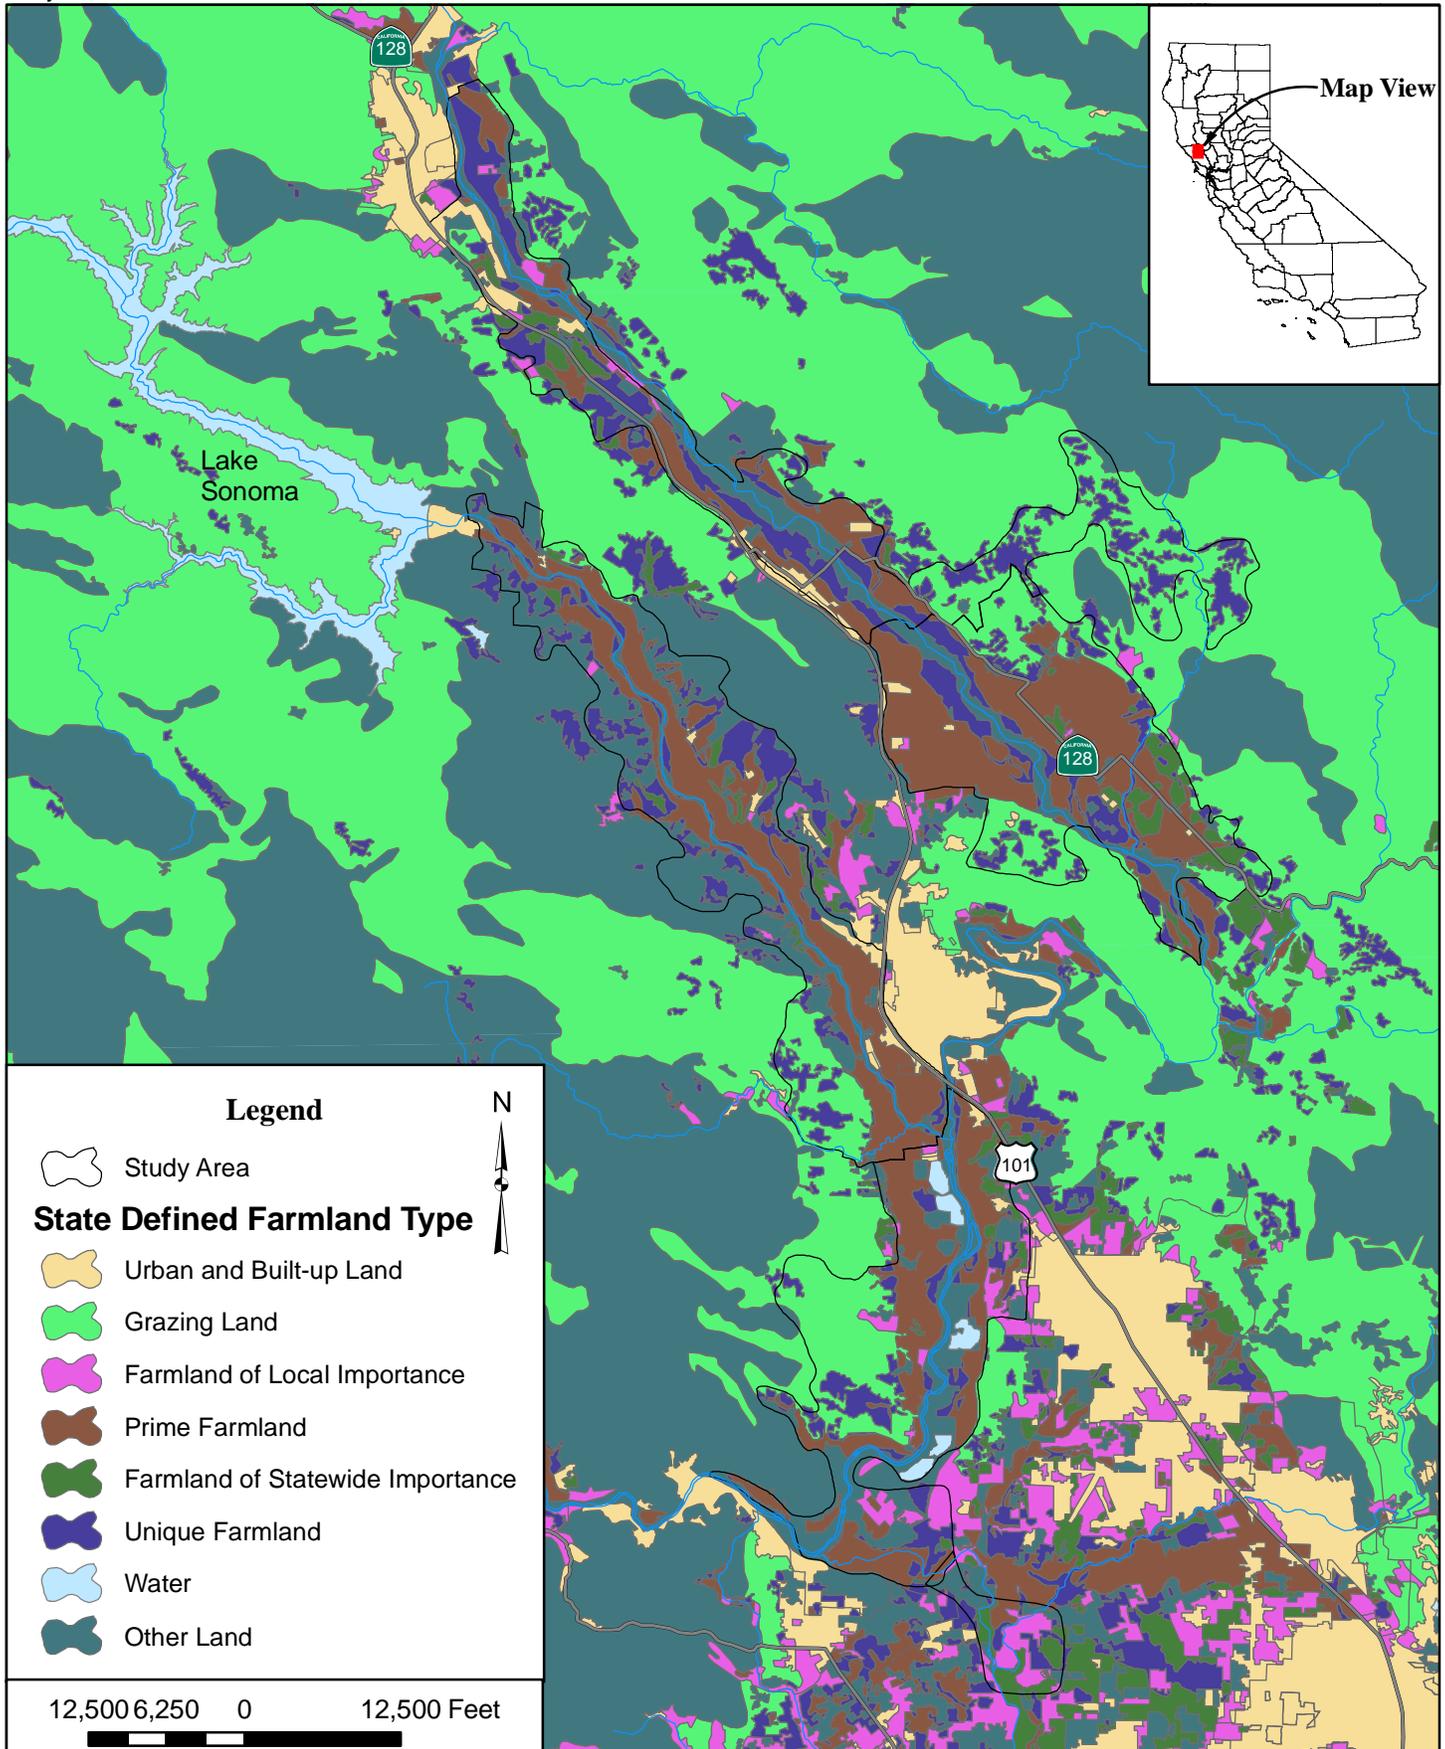

Source: IRWP EIR, 2003

Example existing view from public roadway

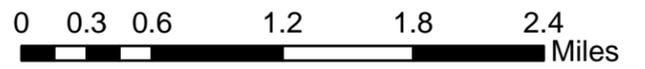

Source: IRWP EIR, 2003

Source: California Department of Conservation

FARMLAND
FIGURE 3.2-1

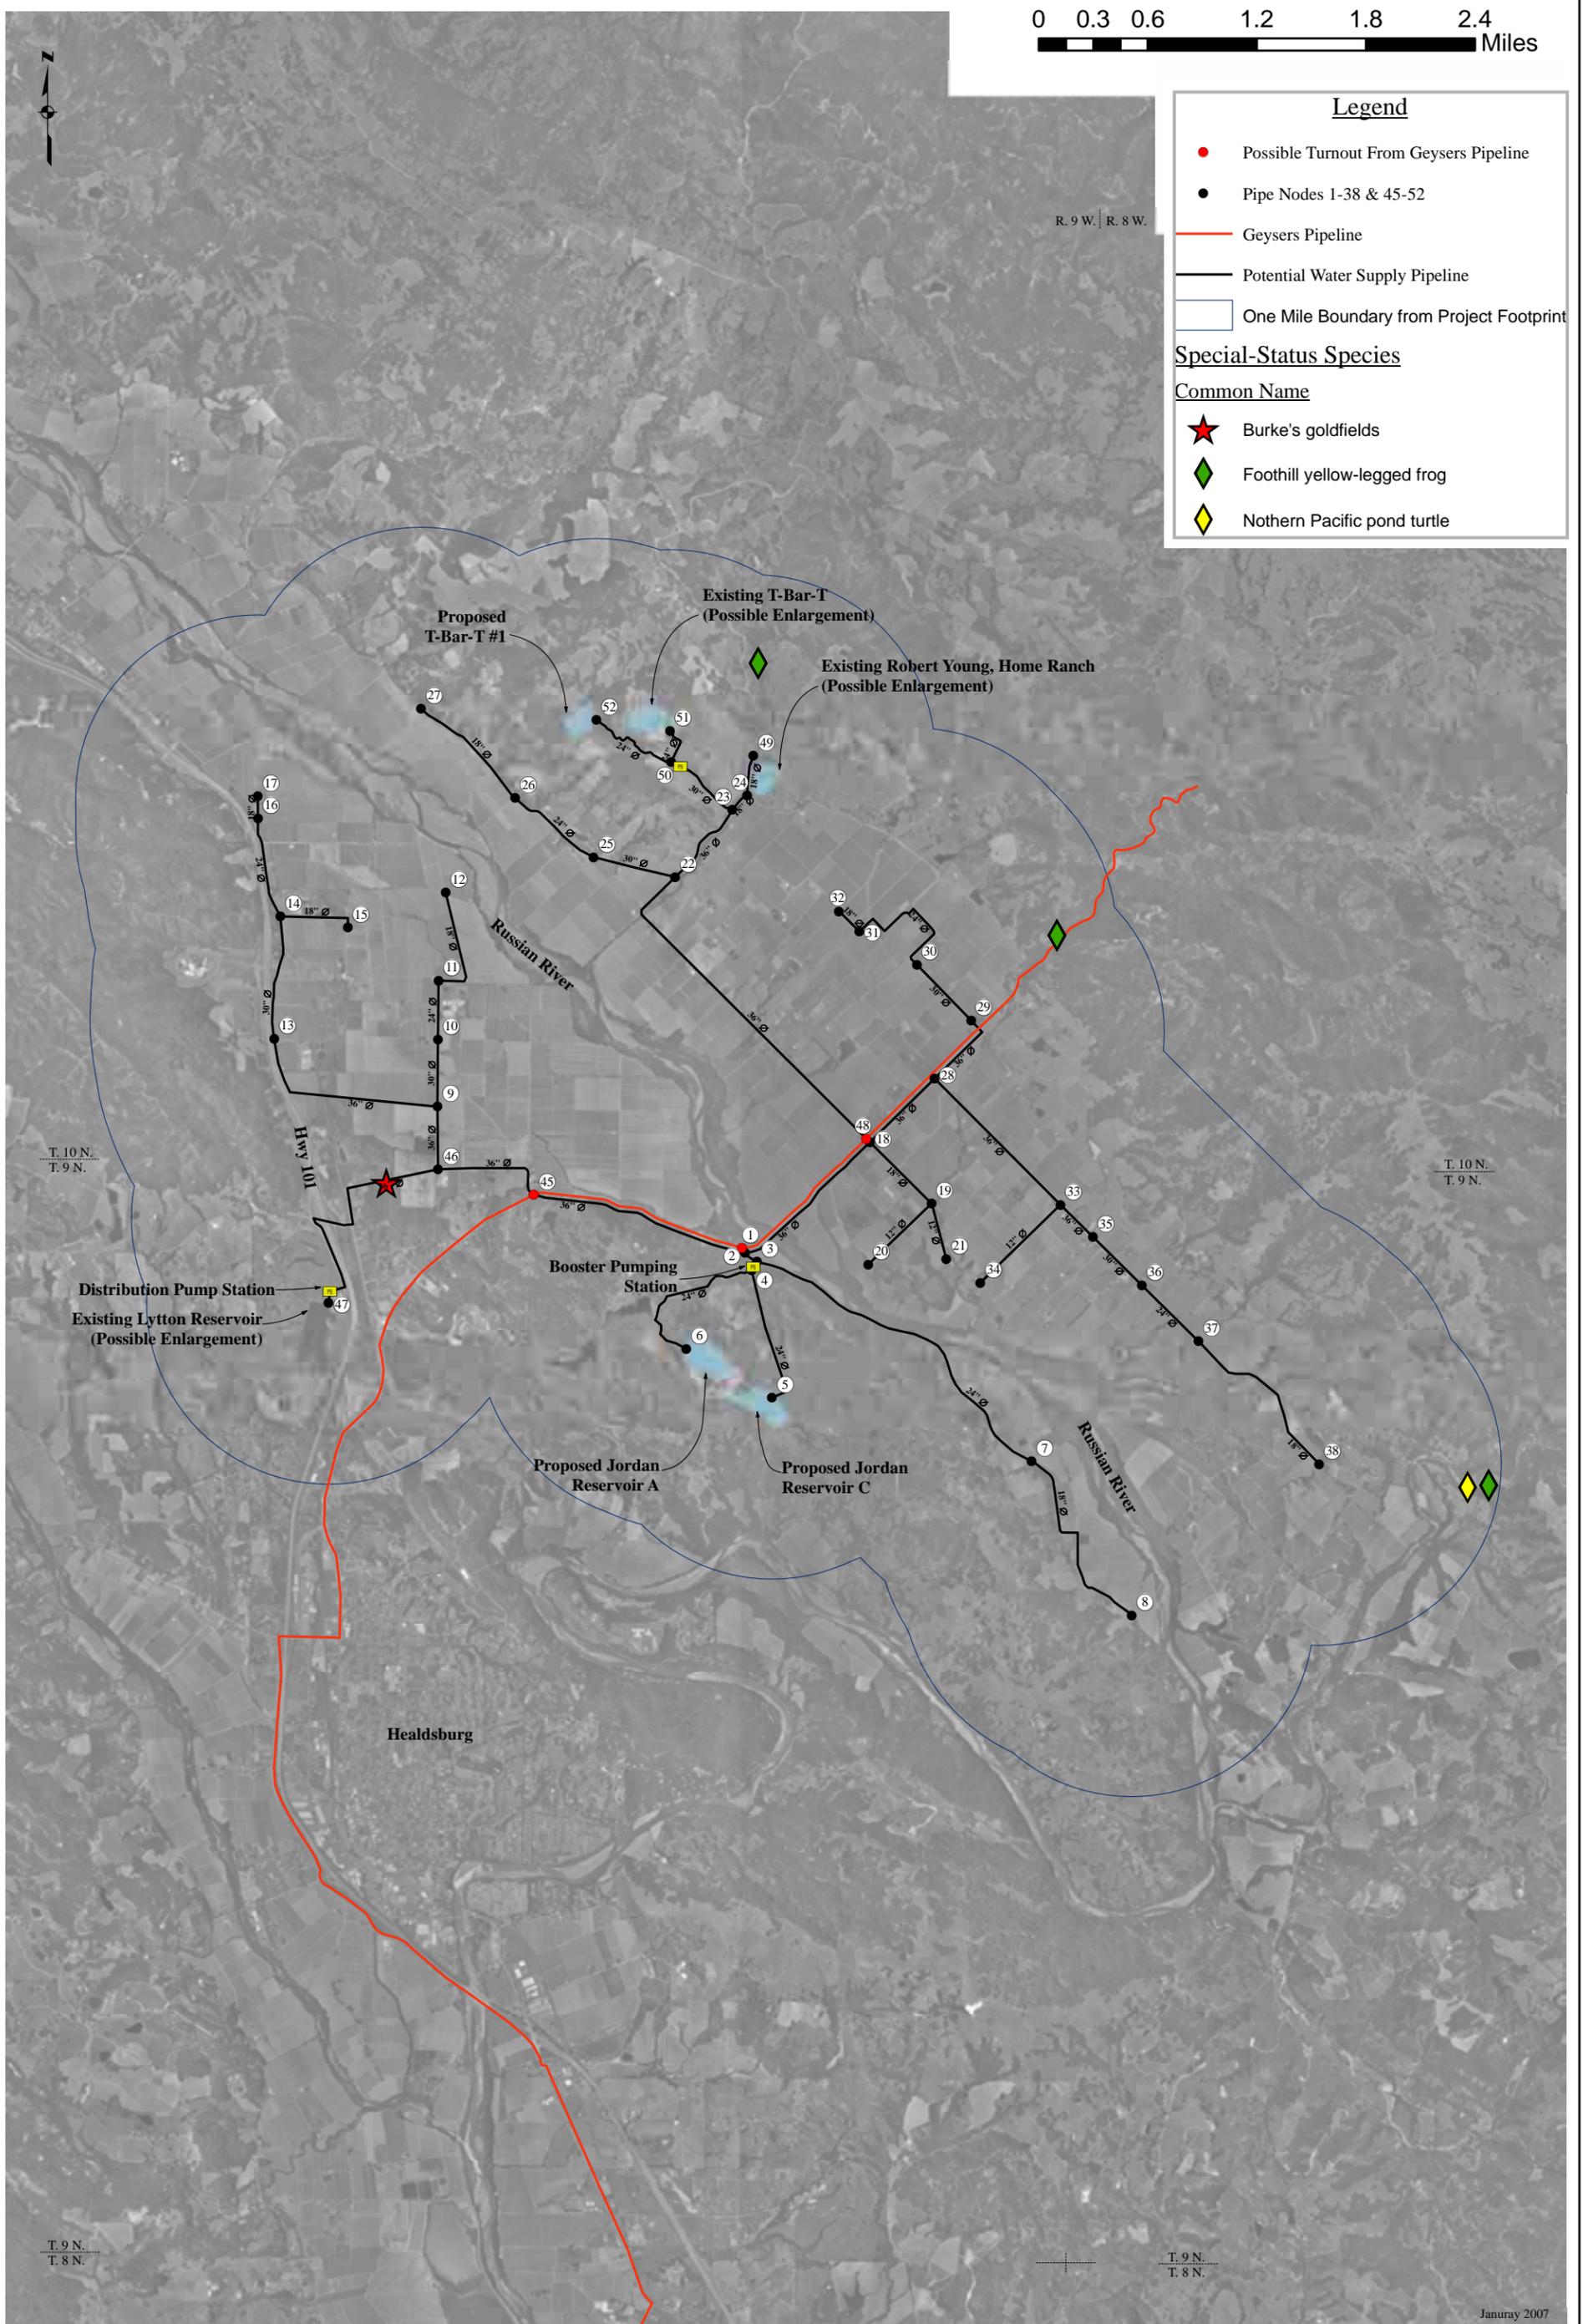

Legend

- Possible Turnout From Geysers Pipeline
- Pipe Nodes 1-38 & 45-52
- Geysers Pipeline
- Potential Water Supply Pipeline
- One Mile Boundary from Project Footprint

Special-Status Species

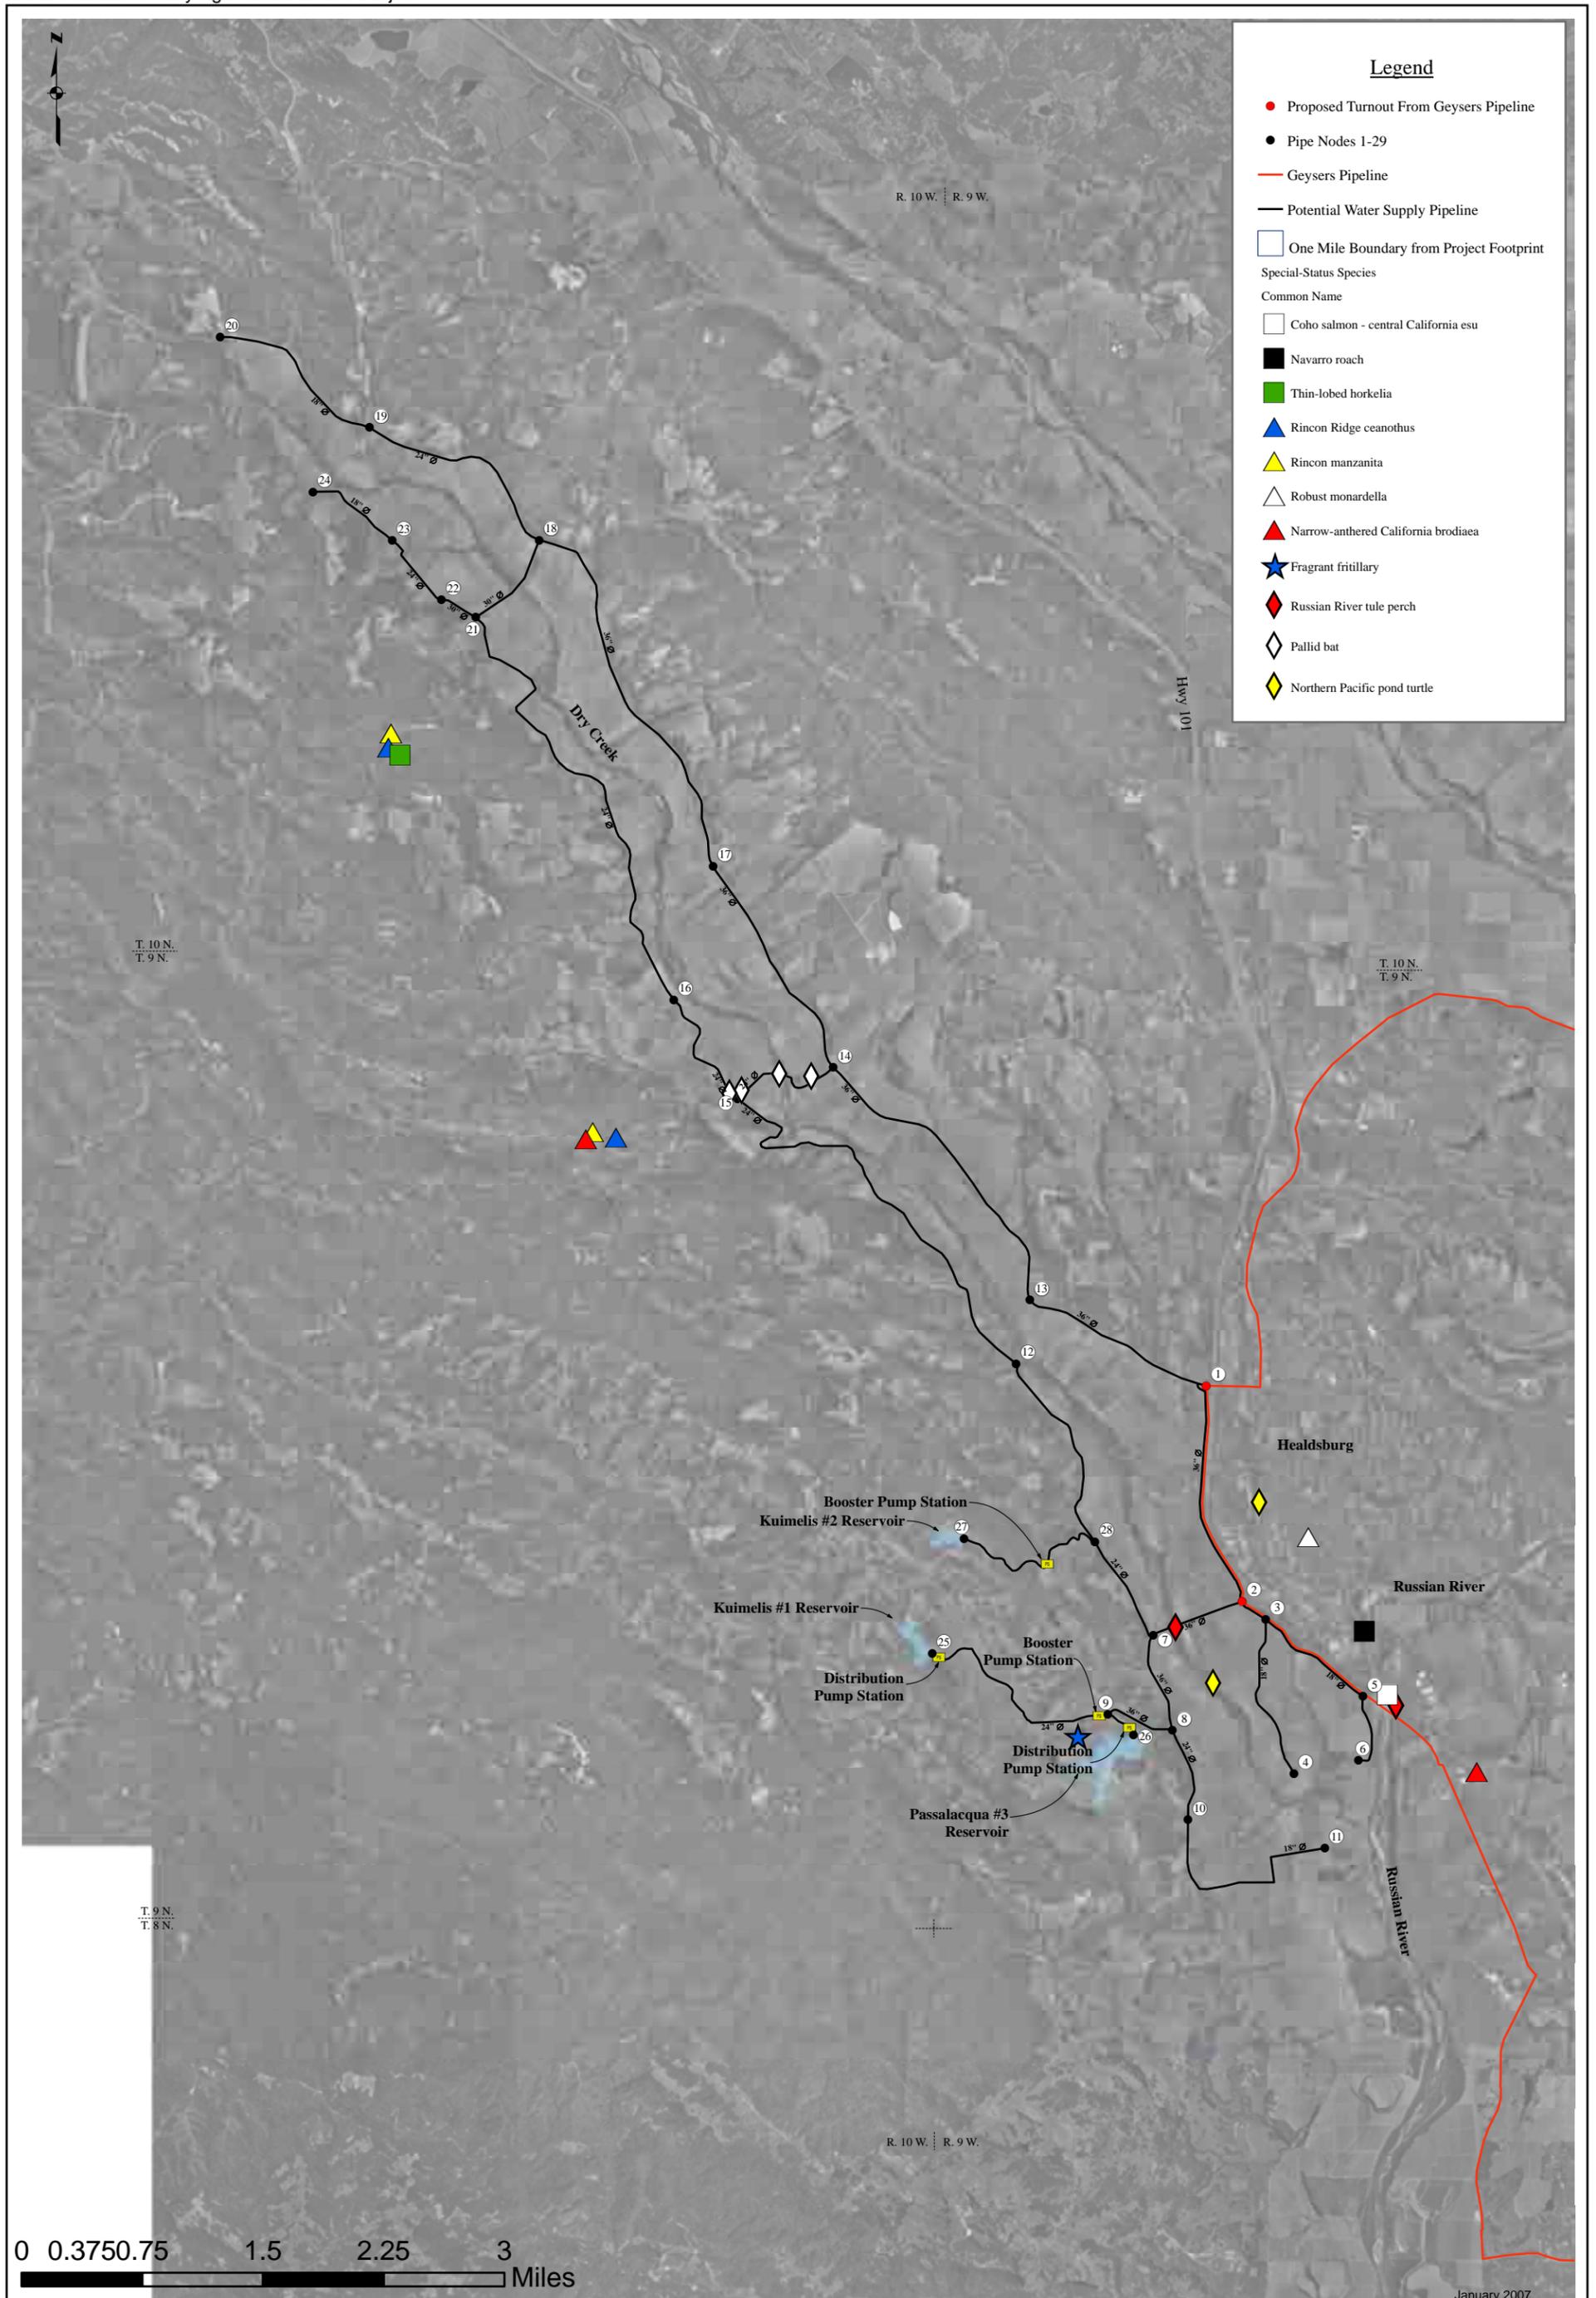

Common Name

- ★ Burke's goldfields
- ◆ Foothill yellow-legged frog
- ◆ Northern Pacific pond turtle

Januray 2007

Figure 3.4-1
 Known Occurrences of Special-Status Species
 Within One-mile of the Proposed Project Site
 Alexander Valley Subarea

Legend

- Proposed Turnout From Geysers Pipeline
- Pipe Nodes 1-29
- Geysers Pipeline
- Potential Water Supply Pipeline
- One Mile Boundary from Project Footprint
- Special-Status Species
- Common Name
- Coho salmon - central California esu
- Navarro roach
- Thin-lobed horkelia
- ▲ Rincon Ridge ceanothus
- ▲ Rincon manzanita
- △ Robust monardella
- ▲ Narrow-anthered California brodiaea
- ★ Fragrant fritillary
- ◆ Russian River tule perch
- ◇ Pallid bat
- ◆ Northern Pacific pond turtle

Figure 3.4-2
 Known Occurrences of Special-Status Species
 Within One-mile of the Proposed Project Site
 Dry Creek Valley